

2012 OSHA 10-Hour Safety Classes

Receive needed training for your employees at the ABA 10-Hour Occupational Safety and Health Course.

Designed specifically for constructions workers, supervisors, construction/ company management and personnel responsible for construction activities.

Topics Include: General Duty Clause, Intro to OSHA & ADOSH Compliance Inspections, General job site safety & health issues and responsibilities, Focus Four which includes fall protection, electrical, excavations (caught in between), and struck by hazards, scaffolds, steel erection, NFPA 70 e Arc Flash, cranes & hoists, material handling, fire protection, confined space work, stairways & ladders, PPE, and legal liabilities for supervisors & companies, and more.

Course instructor Sharon Powers of POWERS SAFETY SERVICES LLC, is a former ADOSH compliance officer who now serves as a safety consultant. Powers Safety Services was awarded the 2008 Professional Service of the Year Cornerstone Award.

When: Each class is two days from 12—6 p.m. on the following dates:
Jan. 12 & 13, Mar. 8 & 9, May, 17 & 18, July 12 & 13, Sept. 13 & 14, Nov. 8 & 9
Where: Arizona Builders' Alliance, 1661 N. Swan, Suite 144
Includes: OSHA Standards Book, Materials, OSHA 10-Hour Card & Refreshments

Lunch sponsored by:

Kazal Fire Protection, Inc.

D.P. Electric, Inc.

___ Reservations @ $100 per person for ABA members
___ Reservations @ $150 per person for non-ABA members
___ Jan. 12 & 13 ___ Mar. 8 & 9 ___ May 17 & 18 ___ July 12 & 13 ___ Sept. 13 & 14 ___ Nov. 8 & 9
___ ABA member, please bill me
___ Check enclosed for $_____

Name(s) _____

Company: _____

Phone: _____ Fax: _____

www.azbuilders.org

1661 N. Swan Road, Suite 144, Tucson, AZ 85712
Phone: (520) 881-7930 • Fax: (520) 327-1686
E-mail: dcarlson@azbuilders.org