

Snell & Wilmer

CORONAVIRUS – Impact on Construction (Webinar)

Snell & Wilmer's Construction Law Group invites you to attend a complimentary webinar addressing the impacts of the Coronavirus (COVID-19) on the world of construction.

Topics for this webinar will include:

- Practical guidance for construction owners, developers, contractors, subcontractors and other project participants grappling with the Coronavirus threat
- Key issues related to contract performance, ensuring continued compliance and maximizing future opportunities while avoiding pitfalls
- Current trends, risks and legal issues related to supply chains that may impact ongoing operations
- OSHA COVID-19 guidance, requirements related to managing an infectious disease preparedness and response plan and overview of potential liability of a prime contractor in ensuring a site and subcontractors are addressing this recognized hazard
- Force majeure, contract claims and relief

Tuesday, March 24, 2020

10 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. Arizona & PST / 1 p.m. – 2:30 p.m. EST

Webinar Access Begins 30 Minutes Prior

Click Here to Access Webinar

If you have any event-related questions, please contact Corey Rubino at 602.382.6190 or crubino@swlaw.com.